

Contractors Are Essential

Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc. is committed to providing products and services to our customers, who sustain essential and necessary operations.

(3/23/20)

We understand there may be questions after the recent announcement by Gov. DeWine, and wanted to address those. Wolff Bros. Supply, Inc. provides supplies for trades that are expected to remain open. Our customers are hospitals, municipalities, food and beverage industries, grocers, utilities, and more. They come to us for their materials to keep essential infrastructure going. Wholesale distribution is a necessity in times of crisis, and Wolff Bros. is here to serve.

To best comply with the Stay At Home Order issued in Ohio, we ask that for the safety of all, please try to limit visits to our branches except for essential projects or service.

We take our responsibility seriously, and are continuously monitoring and updating our daily operations in accordance with CDC guidelines and recommendations. The safety of our employees, customers, and community is vital, so we're taking every precaution to keep everyone healthy and prevent the spread of illness.

Our commitment is to our customers. We're here for you.
